Dear Charlie:

Thank you for bringing joy, hope, and inspiration to our cancer survivors and their families this week. You are an amazing man! Your story of your journey through cancer diagnosis, treatment, recovery, and survivorship provided incredible insight into the physical, emotional, and psychological roller coaster that cancer survivors experience. Your testimonial and your incredible music provides inspiration to everyone who has the opportunity to meet and hear you.

God has given you amazing talents. Thank you for your willingness to share your story and your music with all of us. There is a lot more hope and joy in the world because of the work you do.

Sincerely,

Richard L. Deming, MD
