

Stickin' Around

written by: Charlie Lustman

So we jumped into a limo on my 41st birthday and drove to Vegas to see friends who work in the Cirque Du Soleil And we went into the studio to spread a little jam before my chemo

Don't care what cha gonna do
Just as long as it keeps me close to you Don't care if you bring me down
You see I'm stickin' around

Stuck a tube into my arm for the drugs they were dealin'
And I watched the bottle drip like a leak from the ceilin'
The tick tock from the hanging clock hung around for hours till the last drop

Don't care what cha gonna do
Just as long as it keeps me close to you Don't care if you knock me down
You see I'm stickin' around

Then it hit me Yes it hit me like a locomotive train out of control And it left me totally stoned

Now they call it adjuvant it's a kind of insurance
It's the ultimate cleanser test your will of endurance
And the worst of the side effect only briefly damages your intellect

Don't care what cha gonna do
Just as long as it keeps me close to you Don't care if ya knock me down
You know I'm stickin' around
